Rajyogini Brahma Kumari Dr. Nalini Didi Ji

Early Life:

Rajyogini Brahma Kumari Nalini Didi ji, was born on 4th April 1942, in a religious family hailing from Kutch, Gujarat. Right from her childhood, she was nurtured with high values and her personality beheld great virtues and righteous thoughts. In spite of growing up amidst luxury and comforts, her mind was always preoccupied with thoughts of helping the needy and creating a better society. But her aim was also to become an ideal modern woman. Subsequently a great event happened which brought a complete transformation in her life. She happened to accompany her mother to attend the lecture of Prajapita Brahma, the founder of the Brahma-kumaris organization. Her meeting with Prajapita Brahma awakened the dormant divine powers within her which completely changed the journey of her life. This was the turning point in her life.

Association with The Brahma Kumaris and Beginning of A Glorious Spiritual Journey:

No sooner did Prajapita Brahma saw her, He realized that this child had a major role to play in the great task of creating a New World by Almighty Supreme .

At the young age of Sixteen, Didi Ji had fixed the goal of her life and was determined to spend the rest of her life in the service of mankind. Eventually her inner self was being illuminated by the light of spiritual knowledge and her life on the spiritual path commenced. Her parents were also delighted to see her spiritual aptitude and growth. Soon they were convinced that their daughter would be a great helping hand in the task of bringing about World Transformation and they were sure that she would be very successful in making her life and the life of people happy and peaceful.

When Didi Ji decided to pursue this spiritual path forward and dedicate her life in this noble cause of World Transformation through Rajyoga Education, her Parents readily supported her, such that first time in the history of Brahma Kumaris that a Father donated a Meditation Centre for his daughter and in this way the journey of Brahma Kumaris Mumbai- Ghatkopar Centre began. Didi Ji continued her spiritual endeavor and became fully engrossed in grasping the divine knowledge, imbibing the gems of knowledge and learning the lessons of Tapasya and Sacrifice.

She also started services towards humanity by enlightening them with pearls of knowledge and enabling them to connect with the Supreme. She created awareness in the people against social evils like discriminations in caste, creed, religion, condemned female foeticide and other social malpractices prevalent in society. She inspired many families to lead a value based life and enabled millions all over the world to rid themselves of stress, addictions, vices etc.

At 80 - Didi ji is an Epitome of Strength and Divine Knowledge & Virtues.

That's why Prajapita Brahma - the Founder of Brahma Kumaris chose her as a role model to depict the most significant message of

" Hear No Evil, Talk No Evil, See No Evil."

BK SISTER JAYANTI

(Addl. Administrative Head of the BrahmaKumaris)

“ My first personal experience with Didi Ji was when we travelled together from Mt. Abu to Bombay way back in 1969. I can only say that Didi ji and her Family through their simplicity, sacrifice and dedication were practical examples for Families, Young Girls, who wanted to practice Rajyoga Meditation and pursue this Spiritual Knowledge. ”

BK SISTER ASHA

(Director, Om Shanti Retreat Centre. Delhi - Gurugram)

“ Didi ji has been my Training Teacher (Training for being a surrendered Brahmakumari) & I see her as the BEST TEACHER in this Organization. Didi ji's vocal skills & her capability to deliver lectures & seminars was such that if I correctly remember, Didi Ji in her younger days has delivered about 8-12 public speeches in a day. This was her dedication to spread the knowledge of the Supreme!! ”

CHARLIE BHAI

(National Co-ordinator. Brahma Kumaris Australia)

“ I have known her almost all my BK Life. She has been quite an inspiration to me. I always found Nalini Didi very loving, very sweet and very spiritually powerful. Whenever I meet her, she has this sweet , sweet smile on her face, which gives you a feeling of contentment, just like "Santoshi Maa" - the Goddess of Contentment. ”

DR. NIRANJAN HIRANANDANI
